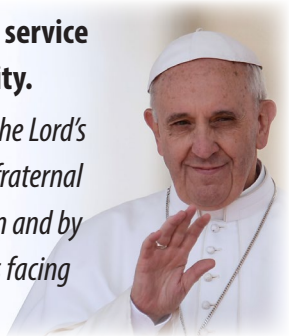
Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

Evangelization: Christians at the service of the challenges of humanity.

That all Christians may be faithful to the Lord's teaching by striving with prayer and fraternal charity to restore ecclesial communion and by collaborating to meet the challenges facing humanity.



Liturgy Reflection

For the next five Sundays, we will hear from the Sermon on the Mount, the first of five great speeches we hear from Jesus in Matthew's Gospel. Since Matthew's community was largely composed of Jewish Christians, the evangelist presents Jesus as the new Moses. Just as Moses was believed to have written the first five books of the Bible, called the Torah, Matthew gives Jesus five great speeches that fulfill the Law of Moses. Notice that Jesus sits down, the posture of a rabbi or teacher, then begins to instruct his followers, called disciples, that is, learners. The Beatitudes serve as the prologue for the ethics of those called to live in the kingdom of heaven. It starts now! Those who take up these beatitudes are "the remnant" referred to by the prophet Zephaniah and "the foolish...the weak...and the lowly" chosen by God to confound "the powerful...the wise...and the strong" that Paul holds up to the Corinthians. These live now in Christ Jesus who is the wisdom of God. Living the Beatitudes is not easy. These are not the values of our culture, but consider the promised rewards.

Attitudes

The first two steps of a twelve-step program are to admit both our powerlessness and our need for a power greater than ourselves to restore us to sanity. In other words, we cannot heal ourselves. We need to abandon our desire for control and recognize our utter dependence upon someone or something greater than ourselves. For Christians this can mean recognizing that we are utterly dependent upon God and mutually dependent upon each other. The Beatitudes, attitudes for being disciples of Jesus, say something similar. Blessed are the poor in spirit (the powerless); those meek enough to let go of our egos; and those who hunger and thirst for a clean heart, that is, sanity through right relationship with God. Freed from self-focus we can pay attention to those who mourn, or those we've hurt, and the divisions in our lives. We can feel with others and become compassionate and merciful peacemakers. Living these attitudes is no small task.

A Note from the Parish Administrator

Nice turnout for the Thanks for Giving dinner recently at Nickelsen Hall. We had 186 RSVP's and about 215 guests – which worked out since we normally plan for an attendance rate of about 20% over RSVP's. A good turnout from Our Lady as usual. Our staff worked especially hard on this menu since it called for lots of natural stuff with time-consuming preparation. From my observation (behind the bar) it appeared that we had a rather thirsty bunch as well. Our staff is not only talented but very diplomatic – suggesting that, instead of helping (getting in the way), I go back and man the office while they worked.

The Thanks for Giving dinner is also somewhat of a recruiting opportunity as we hope folks will see how much fun our volunteers are having and want to join in. We currently have about 300 volunteers working more than 450 jobs covering the two campuses, so you can see there's a great deal of double-dipping going on. Check all the ministries listed in the bulletin to see if you might have an interest. Remember – if you're willing to work, we're willing to let you.

Next weekend (Feb 4/5) we'll be having Presentation Sunday as we start the 2017 CSA campaign. Msgr suggests we all pay close attention to the video since he's apparently the star of the show. We'll be featuring the CSA highlights for several weeks as we kick off the new season.

Sister Annie of the Damien House was very pleased and thankful for your generosity as we collected almost $8,000 for her mission in Ecuador.

It's good to see the old Delchamps has finally been demolished. It's been an eyesore for '98 drivers for at least a dozen years, plus a health risk for nearby neighborhoods. In its better days it boasted of the anchor store and a few local businesses – the most notable (and delicious) Nikki's (sp?) Pizza – was always a local favorite.

One of our grand ladies of the parish just turned 96 this past week. Since I don't have permission to print her name you'll have to figure that out yourself. Happy Birthday _____!

The Gulf Breeze Natural Gas folks have extended services to Pensacola Beach in the last couple years and just recently logged a major account as Margaritaville, which is closed for renovations, is converting their pool heaters and other utilities to natural gas. That's the equivalent of adding 369 single family homes. No word yet on when they'll be moving eastward so Our Lady can get rid of the propane tank.

Tom Naile

Words: If to dehumidify is the opposite of to humidify, but devote is not the opposite of vote, how can a caretaker be the same as a caregiver?

Thought for the Day: "If ever the time should come, when vain and aspiring men shall possess the highest seats in government, our country will stand in need of its experienced patriots to prevent its ruin." (Samuel Adams, revolutionary (1722-1803). (They also named a beer after him.)

On behalf of all the staff, "Thank You for allowing us to serve you. You make a difference every day!"

Yet another reason to stop soda ...

The Mayo Clinic defines metabolic syndrome as a cluster of conditions - increased blood pressure, high blood sugar, excess body fat around the waist, and abnormal cholesterol or triglyceride levels - that occur together, increasing your risk of heart disease, stroke and diabetes. A recent study concluded that both sugar-sweetened beverage and artificially sweetened beverage intake are both associated with metabolic syndrome.
