Liturgy Reflection

The Holy Spirit has the power to transform the world and our lives in it. No matter which readings are chosen for today's liturgy, we witness God's power to transform. Isaiah, writing while the Israelites were living in exile, foresees a time when "every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low," transforming the world around them. Later, he says God's chosen one will "bring forth justice to the nations, ...

open the eyes of the blind, ... bring out prisoners from confinement," transforming the lives of those in need. Peter speaks in the house of Cornelius, the first Gentile convert. "God shows no partiality," Peter says, transforming the outreach of the nascent Christian community.

Paul writes to Titus that through Baptism and the Holy Spirit, we "become heirs in hope of eternal life," transforming what happens after we die. In the Gospel, John promises that Jesus would baptize "with the Holy Spirit and fire," transforming their lives. Indeed, if we have been baptized, we have the transformative power of the Holy Spirit within us.

Today's Readings

First Reading - Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Psalm - Psalm 29

Second Reading - Acts 10:34-38

Gospel - Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading - Isaiah 62:1-5

Psalm - Psalm 96

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Gospel - John 2:1-11

HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

Young People and the Example of Mary

That young people, especially in Latin America, follow the example of Mary and respond to the call of the Lord to communicate the joy of the Gospel to the world.

Proposal for the Month

Throughout this month, try to be a proclaimer of the joy of the Gospel with those who need it most, in their own environments, family, friendship and work.

Called to Serve

For many weeks now, we have been celebrating the appearance of the divine presence in human form. As a child, he came to Mary and Joseph, was seen by the shepherds, and then by some wandering magi from the East. Today we celebrate another showing, later in time, to a group gathered at the Jordan River. John hesitated to baptize Jesus, whom he recognized as "one mightier than I." But he did as Jesus asked, and the "Holy Spirit descended" and heaven's voice spoke to Jesus, "You are my beloved Son." Jesus was beginning his public life of teaching and service. Soon he would start calling others to join him. Peter was one of the first to be called by Jesus. In today's second reading, he announces the heart of the message, "peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all." Peter was called, and you and I are called to spread that message and to serve God's word.

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR

Our man David Taveirne has been with us on staff here since May, 2007, having joined us while still a teen. His St. Ann career began as the Night Supervisor, and through the years he added the Tech Director to his resume, having acquired expertise in the IT side of our parish and, due to his interest in music, quickly became an expert in the operation and maintenance of the sound systems in both churches. During his tenure, David finished high school, received his undergraduate degree from UWF and then just recently completed his MBA, also at UWF. UWF, apparently liking the product it produced, has offered a beginning to his post-graduate career in the UWF Graduate Department. David will be leaving us, effective today, and will now put his immense talents to work in the academic world. David will still be around every Sunday playing drums for the 11:00 o'clock choir. We wish David well. The Taveirne family has served St. Ann's well over the years, and we'll still see Sgt. Taveirne assisting with security and sound.

David's replacement is Jonathon Muckler. You may recognize the name – at least the surname – as Jonathon is the son of Tammy – our kitchen czarist. Like David, Jonathon is attempting to balance a college career with full employment. We welcome Jonathon on board.

We also say “so long and good luck” to our part time custodian at Our Lady, Gerry Watson, who has decided to make retirement a full-time job. Gerry has served us well, and we wish him well. We're looking for a replacement, preferably someone who resides on the beach.

I recently had the pleasure of attending a Boy Scout Court of Honor as one of our parish scouts reached Eagle status. While proud parents James and Amy and brother John looked on, Daniel Combes received his Eagle badge recognizing the ultimate in scouting. Daniel is a member of Troop 11 which is sponsored by the Gulf Breeze Presbyterian Church. Each Eagle candidate must go through a strenuous process and must have something like 31 badges to be eligible (don't hold me to that number – it's a lot) and must complete a major project that will benefit the community. Daniel's project was construction of the picnic tables you see on the St. Ann parish hall patio. Really good job. St. Ann also sponsors a troop (417) which meets on Tuesday nights. We have several parish scouts who have reached Eagle status, and you'll see some of their work around the St. Ann campus and picnic grounds. If you have a project let me know. There are quite a few prospective Eagles looking for a project.

Word (term) of the Day – “Pascal's Wager” - An argument in philosophy presented by French philosopher, mathematician and physicist Blaise Pascal that humans bet with their lives that God exists or does not. He argues that a rational person should live as though God exists and seek to believe in God. It gets pretty deep there so I'll leave the rest up to you. Very good NY Times crossword clue – almost as good as Occam's Razor.

Truism: I like long walks – especially when they're taken by people who annoy me.

Tom Naile

Congratulations Daniel!

Good luck David!

Welcome Jonathan!

Farewell Gerry!
