Serving the Community in Body, Mind and Spirit

Alleluia! He Is Risen!

Liturgy Reflection

Alleluia! He has risen. Alleluia! He has conquered death. Alleluia! He has brought salvation to the world. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Today we welcome Alleluia! back to our vocabulary. We sing it, we shout it, we proclaim it. Throw open the doors and windows! This is too big to be contained. The veil of the sanctuary, torn in half when Jesus died on the cross, is a sign of this, for the sanctuary could no longer contain it. The stone that was rolled away from the entrance to the tomb is, too, for the tomb could no longer contain it. The new life that Jesus brought about through his death and resurrection is too great to be closed up. It needs to escape into the open, bursting forth for all to share. Last night, the Church around the world welcomed its newest members. Today we renew our own baptismal promises, recalling the day that we became members of the Church. As members of the Church, we are called to spread the Good News, as the apostles did after Jesus' death and resurrection. We do not just shout and sing Alleluia! to ourselves. We celebrate the redemption Jesus won with everyone. Alleluia indeed!

Second Reading - 1 John 5:1-6

Gospel - John 20:19-31

Our Lady of America, Lily of Purity, intercede for our Country so that our president will be a man of God who will help the United States become a country of great purity and high morality, a country that will uphold family life and influence other countries throughout the world to love God above all, to serve Him and to live for him alone. Our Sweet Mother, time and again, you have given us your gracious assistance and thus we humbly and gratefully acknowledge you as Queen of America. We place our hope and our confidence in you! Our Lady of America, pray for us! May our Eternal Father shine His light upon this Country and the whole world. Amen.

Seeking

Easter Sunday is a day all about seeking. The early Christian communities gathered around the Apostles, seeking more about the life and ministry of the Lord Jesus. Saint Paul told the baptized Colossians to "seek what is above." Mary of Magdala went to the tomb, seeking to find the Lord's body so that she could anoint it. We come to church on Easter Sunday seeking many things. For some of us, this is a once-a-year journey, when we seek connection with the foundations of the Christian faith. For others, this day is the culmination of a long journey of Lenten repentance. For the newly baptized, this is the first day of a new life filled with promise and expectation. Whatever it is that we seek, let us be inspired by the disciple whom Jesus loved who, when he saw the wrappings of cloth inside the empty tomb, "saw and believed."

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR

SAVE the DATE: Vacation Bible School – July 23–27.

Parish Directories – Jody has finished the first round with the directories. We're doing them in-house this time so you don't have to sign up to buy a bunch of pictures – in fact you don't even have to take a picture. We're going through the proof-reading stage right now, so there's still time if you have moved, changed email or phone numbers etc.

I recently had one of our readers take exception with something I wrote which was critical of a local business. He further stated that I had no right to interject my own opinions in the column and that I should apologize to the organization and in the future stick to church business. (I suppose I could quote from the CARA (Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate) that a recent Gallop report says that, "Fewer than one in four Americans now believe the Bible is "the actual word of God, and is to be taken literally, word for word".) I started this column more than nine years ago primarily as a way to get information to our readers in an informal way and to encourage readership of the bulletin. Since then I've had 3 written complaints but hundreds of compliments and requests to "keep it coming". I do have one reader who complains it's too long but I just tell him to stop reading when he gets tired. I check with the Pastor periodically to make sure he's good with what I write, and I have our editor (Robin) check it for typos or to make sure I'm being somewhat correct in my usage of the King's English - and I hope folks understand that what I write reflects what I observe and certainly not an attempt to influence others. I also try to keep the column somewhat secular so no one will think I'm using it as a pulpit.

Speaking of parish directories and bulletins and following the advice of members of the Parish Finance Council to put names and jobs and faces together, I'd like you to meet my slave-driving editor (Robin Hebert) and our "work you to death" Ministry Coordinator (Jody Daily) and let them tell you a little about themselves.

"Hi, I'm Robin Hebert. I have been a parishioner and member of the St. Ann staff for nearly 5 years. I initially was hired as a teacher in the Discovery School but then moved over to join the Faith Formation department as the Sunday School Coordinator/Ministries Assistant/Liturgical Assistant. Over the years, my position has changed, and I am now the Communications Director - which includes bulletin editor, public relations, graphic design & production of printed/digital materials, among other tasks. I continue to serve as Liturgical Assistant and help with special events, as well as volunteer for VBS and Sunday School. St. Ann has become my 'home away from home', and I am blessed to be a part of this amazing staff and parish!"

"My name is Jody Daily, and I have been a parishioner here at St. Ann's since 2008. I have enjoyed volunteering for many years in various ministries. Then last May, I was asked to become a part of the St. Ann staff. My first task was the planning and coordination of a very special event - Monsignor's Anniversary party. Shortly after, I took on the role of Volunteer Coordinator/Ministries Assistant. When I am not in my office managing the ministry schedule or working on the parish directories, you can find me around campus assisting the decorators, planning special events or running the kitchen for Sunday breakfasts. I am blessed to work with such an amazing staff, and I love working closely with all our volunteers and different ministries."

M-W's Word of the Day: "Lugubrious" – mournful or dismal – what my editor says about my work.

From Wordsmith – celebrating its quadricentennial (24th anniversary) – "The English language has many such colorful terms to describe people, from smellfungus (a habitual faultfinder or complainer), to lickspittle (a servile flatterer), to makebate (one who incites quarrels) and pinchgut (a miserly person).

HEALTH TIPS BY MELISSA

Blueberries have benefits - they provide antioxidants. Anthocyanins, the pigments that make blueberries blue, are potent antioxidants: a 1/2 cup of blueberries provides the antioxidant power of five servings of peas, carrots, apples, squash or broccoli.

Blueberries: 1. are a healthy, low-glycemic-index carbohydrate
2. are a source of vitamin C 3. help meet your daily fiber needs
4. have shown promise in addressing the effects of aging
5. may offer various other health benefits ranging from preventing cancer and defending against urinary tract infections, to protecting the brain from stroke damage and reducing heart disease risks. Look for organic blueberries, and toss some in a salad, eat as a snack or throw in a parfait with plain yogurt and walnuts. Frozen organic blueberries are a great replacement for ice in making a frosty breakfast smoothie with unsweetened nut milk and a handful of raw almonds.
