Liturgy Reflection

We are invited to a banquet today. Will we come and eat? Wisdom invites us first. In Proverbs, Wisdom is a woman who has prepared a meal and calls on everyone to eat and drink. Naturally, since she is Wisdom, this food is knowledge and insight: "Forsake foolishness ... advance in the way of understanding". Similarly, Saint Paul invites the Christians of Ephesus to live wisely, not foolishly, so that they can "understand what is the will of the Lord". He encourages them to sing psalms and play songs, inviting them to "give thanks ... in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father". The word Paul uses for "giving thanks" is eucharisteo, the word we use for the meal we celebrate, the meal Jesus invites us to partake in. Like Wisdom, Jesus does not command in today's Gospel. He invites. He invites everyone to share in his banquet. He is both host and meal. "The one who feeds on me will have life because of me". We are all invited to consume him. We will then have life. Truly, we give thanks.

Today's Readings

First Reading - Proverbs 9:1-6

Psalm - Psalm 34

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:15-20

Gospel - John 6:51-58

At the Table

In today's first reading, Wisdom is imagined as a woman rich in poise and grace. She moves smoothly and confidently about her temple-like home. She doesn't flutter about, nervous with worry. Wisdom sends her maidens to invite all to her open house. The guests do not possess any particular genius or insight. They need only be a people of good will and common sense. They are summoned to leave behind foolishness and to find for themselves a place at Wisdom's table. There they may and can eat and drink deeply. Today's Gospel draws us back to the table of the Eucharist. Jesus addresses those who seek to understand his words and, sadly, those who seek to avoid them. As people born of God, we are called and equipped to seek God's will and act on it.

Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading - Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Psalm - Psalm 34

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:21-32

Gospel - John 6:60-69

The Treasure of Families

That any far-reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity.

Challenge for the Month:

In your own family, take care of relationships in a constructive way, creating bridges, healing wounds, taking care of those who are in greater difficulties or sick.

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR

Shoulda seen this earlier – watching local TV weather folks talking about a “perseid” (pur-see-id) and then seeing it in dictionary.com made me look again. Seems it’s a part of the Astronomy world and refers to a “shower of meteors appearing in August and radiating from a point in the constellation Perseus”. So, if you see your neighbor walking around looking skyward, it’s a natural thing.

I’m apparently running a week behind. Last Sunday’s first reading featured Elijah sleeping under a broom tree – which, of course, brought about the question of what’s a broom tree. It’s a desert shrub that grows across Arabia and the Judean wilderness and apparently is symbolic of both despair and divine encounters. (In pictures, it looks like a rosemary bush.) You might have also noticed in that Gospel the Jews “murmured” while in today’s Gospel they “quarreled”. Both from John.

The recent visits by Little Sisters of the Poor netted $12,449.76 for the Mobile-located group – possibly more as they always leave envelopes for those of us who forgot our checkbooks. Speaking of checkbooks and such – just a reminder that we have those kiosks in both church narthexes for convenience. Very simple – follow the directions – and you can participate without the worry of cash or checkbooks. And remember – if you give on line but still feel guilty not putting something in the basket, we have those little wooden “E-Tithe” buttons you can pick up in the narthex and drop in the basket.

CSA through July 31: Our Lady is $499.83 into overgoal while St. Ann is $13,771.17 over it’s goal. All future donations drop straight to Primary Savings. Good job.

Hearing one of our parishioners in the hall tell another “The coffee is free” prompted me to check with Tammy regarding our monthly beverage bill: More than $600 per month – so we do appreciate it when you drop a couple bucks in the basket every now and then.

I recently mentioned a local project to build Little Free Libraries, and there was a picture in the GBN of resident Dan Kopack presenting the book case to the City Council. So, here come the Cadettes under the leadership of parishioner Mary Masserelli stepping up to take on that challenge as a troop project. Anyone who wants to help them out with this project let us know. You can go on line to Little Free Library to learn more about this neighborhood project.

If you’re wondering about all the digging along Daniel and Joachim – it’s just Gulf Breeze Natural Gas putting in a new and bigger gas line. The big job will come shortly when the re-paving, re-lighting and new signage starts. That’s also when we’ll put in that crosswalk so our friends from The Arbors can safely cross.

Congratulations to long-time parishioner Becky Grace, who just retired from the Santa Rosa Country School District after twenty eight (28) years, all at Gulf Breeze Middle School. Always a favorite, Miz Becky worked in the administration office and touched many young lives over the years, and many old friends came by to wish her well. We also appreciate her contributions, not only to the school system, but to the parish as well. We know she and Pat will enjoy this new part of their lives.

M-W’s Word of the Day: “Weald” (WEELD) – a heavily wooded area such as a forest. As in, “If a man speaks in the weald and there is no woman there to hear him, is what he said still wrong”?

Aphorism: “Always be yourself because the people that matter don’t mind, and the ones that mind don’t matter.”

ARE YOU READY TO JOIN?

Here is your chance to join a club where there are NO meetings and no fund-raising events. All that is needed are your prayers for our seminarians and $1 a month to support their education. An annual check of $12 will get you a membership in the Burse Club. An annual donation of $15 or $25 would greatly support those whom the Lord is calling to the priesthood. There are brochures in the Narthex. Checks should be made out to DCCW Burse Club. PLEASE JOIN!

Looking for a way to support a seminarian by "spiritually adopting" him? Our parish has had the privilege of hosting three of the current seminarians in our diocese.

MINISTRY OF COMPASSION AND CONSOLATION

St. Ann and Our Lady are renewing their ministry of compassion and consolation which currently includes liturgical support and hospitality.

In cooperation with the Diocese, we will offer a two-day training opportunity for parishioners who would like to be a part of renewing this ministry. The training will be held on September 14 & 15 at the pastoral Center, 11 North B Street, Pensacola. On Friday, the 2-part session will run from 4-8pm and on Saturday from 9am-3pm. The $25 registration fee includes material and meals. Register online with the diocese at www.ptdiocese.com/registration. The deadline for registration is August 17.

Adopting a semenarian could mean:

Writing him letters, sending cards for special occasions, like birthdays or Christmas, sending monetary donations for surplus expenses, such as gas money or dinner out with classmates, and most importantly praying for him. You can send him a "Spiritual Bouquet" with prayer promises, mass intentions, and rosaries being said. Spiritual bouquets and financial gifts may be sent directly to your "adopted seminarian".

Today's reading encourages us to be filled with the Spirit. Give thanks always and for everything.

Are you grateful for having received all three Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist?

Then extend Bishop Wack's invitation to someone who has not been fully initiated to become fully initiated as a Catholic at Celebrate Faith on February 9, 2019. Then they can join you in giving thanks!

WASHBURN CENTER VOLUNTEERS

Are you being called to serve? The Alfred-Washburn Center is a ministry of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul serving the homeless and poorer members of our community. The Center is funded by the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Stores and Conferences, as well as private and corporate donations. We are a 100% volunteer organization.

The only qualification for volunteers is a desire to serve the least of our brothers and sisters. All potential volunteers are encouraged to "Come and See" to determine if this ministry is right for you. If you are interested in learning more about how you can get involved, contact Cathy Porter at 748-2847. All are welcome!

Do you want to know Jesus better, to love him more deeply and to follow him more closely? One way to do this would be to make the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola in the 9-month, everyday form. The minimum age is 18 (there is no maximum age).

This is the sixth year we are offering this program at St. Ann, and more than 20 people have completed it. These are prayer exercises designed 500 years ago by St. Ignatius while he was still a layman, from his own prayer experiences, to bring people into a deeper, more personal relationship with God. A prayer guide will provide you with daily scripture passages and some writings of St. Ignatius. You will commit to 1 hour of prayer daily and a weekly one-on-one meeting with your prayer guide. This program will begin the week of September 23 and end the first week in May. There is no cost to participate. If you are interested or would like more information, email Joan Moore at maryjoanprouty@gmail.com or Morgan Rosas at morganrosas@icloud.com. Days & times of weekly meetings will be mutually agreed upon by participants & prayer guides.

HEALTH TIPS BY MELISSA

Zucchini is often considered like iceberg lettuce (probably due to its mild flavor and pale flesh) but it contains an appreciable amount of zeaxanthin, carotenes, lutein, and fiber. Most of these are in the skin, as you'd expect given the color. Zucchini is also high in potassium and Vitamin C and has decent amounts of B6 and folate. Because they are mostly fiber and water by volume, they can be helpful for both constipation and diarrhea. The antioxidants in the skin are great for eye health, and the fibers in zucchini can help regulate blood sugar.
